

IBLCE Comment Policy

INTRODUCTION

The official IBLCE social media outlets are the place for IBCLCs, prospective IBCLCs, and other stakeholders to come together and learn about the latest happenings at IBLCE. Thank you for being a part of this community!

At IBLCE, we encourage public participation on our social media accounts. We greatly value our followers and appreciate the feedback and opinions shared on our accounts.

As members of this online community, our followers must help us foster an inclusive and civil environment by adhering to IBLCE's Comment Policy. Thank you for your cooperation.

COMMENT POLICY

Comments on all IBLCE social media accounts should be respectful and on-topic. IBLCE social media accounts provide general information about IBLCE and news of interest regarding breastfeeding. They are not forums for clinical advice.

The IBLCE social media accounts are not forums to discuss specific information regarding the content of the IBCLC examination. This information is not to be posted, will be deleted and subject to further action.

IBLCE reserves the right to remove or not approve any comment with unacceptable content. We may remove or not approve comments that:

- Use offensive, abusive, vulgar, threatening, or harassing terms and language;
- Use defamatory language;
- Use accusatory language;
- Promote/sell a product or fundraise for an organisation, academic research, or other cause or contain proprietary information;
- Infringe on copyrights;
- Suggest or encourage an illegal, dangerous, or destructive activity;
- Are clearly off topic or repeated;
- Lobby or promote a political campaign;
- Include confidential information;
- Are customer service questions (for those, please contact the IBLCE location that serves you);
- Include links that contain unacceptable content;
- Or are otherwise deemed inappropriate.

Repeated violations of the Comment Policy may result in the user being blocked from the IBLCE social media profiles.

DISCLAIMERS

IBLCE's official social media accounts are produced, managed, and monitored by IBLCE.

- Comments posted by other users on IBLCE social media accounts do not represent the opinions or policies of IBLCE. The user who posts a comment is solely responsible for the content of the comment.
- External links to other websites should not be construed as an endorsement. IBLCE is not responsible for the content of those external websites.
- Users understand and acknowledge that any content posted to any IBLCE social media page is available to the public and that other participants may use posted information beyond the control of IBLCE.
