Designating custodian as affiliate

2.1(1) A custodian who wishes to become an affiliate of another custodian must, in the form approved by the Minister, apply to the Minister for a designation.

(2) A custodian may not apply under subsection (1) unless the custodian has first obtained written consent from the other custodian to become its affiliate.

(3) On receiving an application described in subsection (1), the Minister may make an order designating the custodian as the affiliate of another custodian if the Minister is of the opinion that it is appropriate to make the order, having regard to

- (a) the public interest,
- (b) the ability of the applicant to provide individuals with reasonable access to their personal health information,
- (c) the ability of the applicant to comply with the Act, and
- (d) whether designating the applicant as an affiliate will improve the efficiency and effectiveness of applying the Act.

(4) An affiliate wishing to resume its duties as a custodian may do so by providing the Minister with written notice in the form approved by the Minister.

- (g) the dispensing details of the drug dispensed;
- (h) the prescription details of the drug dispensed;
- (i) the identification number of the health services provider who prescribed the drug;
- (j) the identification number of the health services provider who dispensed the drug.

AR 14/2007 s4

Information manager agreement

7.2 For the purposes of section 66(2) of the Act, an agreement between a custodian and an information manager must

- (a) identify the objectives of the agreement and the principles to guide the agreement,
- (b) indicate whether or not the information manager is permitted to collect health information from any other custodian or from a person and, if so, describe that health information and the purpose for which it may be collected,
- (c) indicate whether or not the information manager may use health information provided to it by the custodian and, if so, describe that health information and the purpose for which it may be used,
- (d) indicate whether or not the information manager may disclose health information provided to it by the custodian and, if so, describe that health information and the purpose for which it may be disclosed,
- (e) describe the process for the information manager to respond to access requests under Part 2 of the Act or, if the information manager is not to respond to access requests, describe the process for referring access requests for health information to the custodian itself,
- (f) describe the process for the information manager to respond to requests to amend or correct health information under Part 2 of the Act or, if the information manager is not to respond to requests to amend or correct health information, describe the process for referring access requests to amend or correct health information to the custodian itself,

- (g) describe how health information provided to the information manager is to be protected, managed, returned or destroyed in accordance with the Act,
- (h) describe how the information manager is to address an expressed wish of an individual relating to the disclosure of that individual's health information or, if the information manager is not to address an expressed wish of an individual relating to the disclosure of that individual's health information, describe the process for referring these requests to the custodian itself, and
- (i) set out how an agreement can be terminated.

AR 119/2010 s6

Security of health information

8(1) A custodian must identify, and maintain a written record of, all of its administrative, technical and physical safeguards in respect of health information.

(2) A custodian must designate an individual who is responsible for the overall security and protection of health information in the custody or under the control of the custodian.

(3) A custodian must periodically assess its administrative, technical and physical safeguards in respect of

- (a) the confidentiality of health information that is in its custody or under its control and the privacy of the individuals who are the subjects of that information,
- (b) any reasonably anticipated threat or hazard to the security or integrity of the health information or to the loss of the health information, and
- (c) any unauthorized use, disclosure or modification of the health information or unauthorized access to the health information.

(4) In order to ensure the privacy and confidentiality of health information that is to be stored or used by a person in a jurisdiction outside Alberta or that is to be disclosed to a person in a jurisdiction outside Alberta, the custodian must, prior to the storage, use or disclosure of the information, enter into a written agreement with the person that

- (a) provides for the custodian to retain control over the health information,
- (b) adequately addresses the risks associated with the storage, use or disclosure of the health information,
- (c) requires the person to implement and maintain adequate safeguards for the security and protection of the health information,
- (d) allows the custodian to monitor compliance with the terms and conditions of the agreement, and
- (e) contains remedies to address any non-compliance with or breach of the terms and conditions of the agreement by the other person.

(5) Subsection (4) does not apply to health information about an individual that is used in a jurisdiction outside Alberta solely for the purpose of providing continuing treatment and care to the individual.

(5.1) Subsection (4) does not apply to the following health information about an individual when the health information is disclosed by the Department to a bank, credit union, credit union central, loan corporation, trust corporation or the Alberta Treasury Branches for the purpose of facilitating bill payments or the collection of premiums:

- (a) name, in any form;
- (b) signature;
- (c) home, business and mailing addresses, electronic address and telecommunications numbers;
- (d) personal health number or any other unique identification number that is used to identify the individual as eligible for, or a recipient of, a health service;
- (e) billing information, including the following:
 - (i) information about amounts owed by the individual to the custodian;
 - (ii) method of payment;
 - (iii) the individual's account number;
 - (iv) if another person is liable for or will be billed for the amount owed by the individual, that person's name and account number.

(5.2) Subsection (4) does not apply to health information that is disclosed to a person in a jurisdiction outside Alberta under a regulation made under subsection 241.31(3) of the Criminal Code (Canada).

(5.3) Subsection (4) does not apply to health information that is disclosed by the Director, as defined in Part 1 of the Crown's Right of Recovery Act, or a person authorized by the Director to a person in a jurisdiction outside Alberta for the purpose of enforcing the Crown's right of recovery under section 2 of that Act.

(6) A custodian must ensure that its affiliates are aware of and adhere to all of the custodian's administrative, technical and physical safeguards in respect of health information.

(7) A custodian must establish sanctions that may be imposed against affiliates who breach, or attempt to breach, the custodian's administrative, technical and physical safeguards in respect of health information.

AR 70/2001 s8;119/2010;60/2018;206/2020;158/2025

Assessment of risk of harm

8.1(1) In assessing under section 60.1(4) of the Act whether there is a risk of harm to an individual as a result of a loss of or an unauthorized access to or disclosure of individually identifying health information, a custodian must consider each of the following factors in addition to any other relevant factors:

- (a) whether there is a reasonable basis to believe that the information has been or may be accessed by or disclosed to a person;
- (b) whether there is a reasonable basis to believe that the information has been misused or will be misused;
- (c) whether there is a reasonable basis to believe that the information could be used for the purpose of identity theft or to commit fraud;
- (d) whether there is a reasonable basis to believe that the information is of a type that could cause embarrassment or physical, mental or financial harm to or damage the reputation of the individual who is the subject of the information;
- (e) whether there is a reasonable basis to believe that the loss of or unauthorized access to or disclosure of the information has adversely affected or will adversely affect the provision of a health service to the individual who is the subject of the information;

- (f) in the case of electronic information, whether the custodian is able to demonstrate that the information was encrypted or otherwise secured in a manner that would
 - (i) prevent the information from being accessed by a person who is not authorized to access the information, or
 - (ii) render the information unintelligible by a person who is not authorized to access the information;
 - (g) in the case of a loss of information, whether the custodian is able to demonstrate that the information was lost in circumstances in which the information was
 - (i) destroyed, or
 - (ii) rendered inaccessible or unintelligible;
 - (h) in the case of a loss of information that is subsequently recovered by the custodian, whether the custodian can demonstrate that the information was not accessed before it was recovered;
 - (i) in the case of an unauthorized access to or disclosure of information, whether the custodian is able to demonstrate that the only person who accessed the information or to whom the information was disclosed
 - (i) is a custodian or an affiliate,
 - (ii) is subject to confidentiality policies and procedures that meet the requirements of section 60 of the Act,
 - (iii) accessed the information in a manner that is in accordance with the person's duties as a custodian or affiliate and not for an improper purpose, and
 - (iv) did not use or disclose the information except in determining that the information was accessed by or disclosed to the person in error and in taking any steps reasonably necessary to address the unauthorized access or disclosure.
- (2) If a custodian is able to demonstrate that a circumstance set out in subsection (1)(f) to (i) applies in the case of a loss of or unauthorized access to or disclosure of individually identifying health information, the custodian is not required to give notice of the loss or unauthorized access or disclosure under section 60.1(2) of the Act.

Notice of loss or unauthorized access or disclosure

8.2(1) A notice to a custodian under section 60.1(1) of the Act must

- (a) if the custodian has established requirements respecting the notice, meet any requirements respecting form and contents established by the custodian, or
- (b) if the custodian has not established requirements respecting the notice, be in writing and include
 - (i) a description of the circumstances of the loss or unauthorized access or disclosure,
 - (ii) the date on which or period of time within which the loss or unauthorized access or disclosure occurred,
 - (iii) the date on which the loss or unauthorized access or disclosure was discovered, and
 - (iv) a description of the information that was lost or that was the subject of the unauthorized access or disclosure.

(2) A notice to the Commissioner of a loss of or an unauthorized access to or disclosure of individually identifying health information under section 60.1(2) of the Act must be in writing in a form approved by the Commissioner and must include

- (a) the name of the custodian who had custody or control of the information at the time of the loss or unauthorized access or disclosure,
- (b) a description of the circumstances of the loss or unauthorized access or disclosure,
- (c) the date on which or period of time within which the loss or unauthorized access or disclosure occurred,
- (d) the date on which the loss or unauthorized access or disclosure was discovered,
- (e) a non-identifying description of the type of information that was lost or that was the subject of the unauthorized access or disclosure,
- (f) a non-identifying description of the risk of harm to an individual as a result of the loss or unauthorized access or disclosure, including a description of the type of harm and an explanation of how the risk of harm was assessed that includes a non-identifying description of the custodian's consideration of the factors referred to in section 8.1(1), including any relevant factors not detailed in that section,

- (g) the number, or if the number cannot be determined, an estimate of the number, of individuals to whom there is a risk of harm as a result of the loss or unauthorized access or disclosure,
- (h) a description of any steps that the custodian has taken or is intending to take, as of the date of the notice, to reduce the risk of harm to an individual as a result of the loss or unauthorized access or disclosure,
- (i) a description of any steps that the custodian has taken or is intending to take, as of the date of the notice, to reduce the risk of a future loss or unauthorized access or disclosure,
- (j) a non-identifying copy of the information that has been or will be provided in the notice to the individual who is the subject of the individually identifying health information referred to in subsection (4), if applicable, together with a statement indicating the method referred to in section 103 of the Act that has been or will be used to give notice to the individual, if applicable,
- (k) if the custodian is requesting the authorization of the Commissioner to give notice to an individual by substitutional service under section 103(c) of the Act, the request together with a statement of the reasons for the request,
- (l) the name and contact information for a person who is able to answer questions on behalf of the custodian about the loss or unauthorized access or disclosure, and
- (m) any other information that the custodian considers relevant.

(3) A notice to the Minister of a loss of or an unauthorized access to or disclosure of individually identifying health information under section 60.1(2) of the Act must be in writing in a form approved by the Minister and must include the information set out in subsection (2)(a), (b), (e), (f), (g), (h), (l) and (m).

(4) A notice to an individual of a loss of or unauthorized access to or disclosure of individually identifying health information under section 60.1(2) of the Act must be in writing and must include

- (a) a description of the circumstances of the loss or unauthorized access or disclosure,

- (b) the date on which or period of time within which the loss or unauthorized access or disclosure occurred,
- (c) the name of the custodian who had custody or control of the health information at the time of the loss or unauthorized access or disclosure,
- (d) a non-identifying description of the type of information that was lost or that was the subject of the unauthorized access or disclosure,
- (e) a description of the risk of harm to the individual as a result of the loss or unauthorized access or disclosure, including a description of the type of harm and an explanation of how the risk of harm was assessed,
- (f) a description of any steps that the custodian has taken or is intending to take, as of the date of the notice, to reduce the risk of harm to the individual as a result of the loss or unauthorized access or disclosure,
- (g) a description of any steps that the custodian has taken or is intending to take, as of the date of the notice, to reduce the risk of a future loss or unauthorized access or disclosure,
- (h) a description of any steps that the custodian believes the individual may be able to take to reduce the risk of harm to the individual,
- (i) a statement that the individual may ask the Commissioner to investigate the loss or unauthorized access or disclosure that includes contact information for the Office of the Information and Privacy Commissioner,
- (j) the name and contact information for a person who is able to answer questions on behalf of the custodian about the loss or unauthorized access or disclosure, and
- (k) any other information that the custodian considers relevant.

AR 60/2018 s5

Notice to Commissioner of decision not to give notice

8.3 A notice to the Commissioner under section 60.1(5) of the Act of a decision not to give notice to an individual must

- (a) be in writing in a form approved by the Commissioner,
- (b) have attached as an appendix the notice required to be provided to the Commissioner in respect of the matter under section 60.1(2) of the Act, and

- (c) set out the total number, or if the number cannot be determined, an estimate of the total number, of individuals that the custodian expects not to give notice to on the basis set out in section 60.1(5) of the Act.

AR 60/2018 s5

Fees

9 Where an applicant is required to pay a fee for services provided under Part 2 of the Act, the fee is payable in accordance with sections 10, 11 and 12.

Fees for health information

10(1) An applicant who makes a request for access to a record containing health information may be required to pay a basic fee of $25 for performing one or more of the following steps to produce a copy of the information:

- (a) receiving and clarifying the request;
- (b) obtaining consent if necessary;
- (c) locating and retrieving the records;
- (d) preparing the record for copying, including removing staples and paper clips;
- (e) preparing a response letter;
- (f) packaging copies for shipping or faxing, or both;
- (g) postage and faxing costs;
- (h) photocopying a record.

(2) Processing of a request will not commence until the basic fee has been paid, if applicable.

(3) In addition to the basic fee, additional fees in accordance with the Schedule may be charged for producing a copy of a record.

Estimate of fees

11(1) An estimate provided under section 67(3) of the Act must set out

- (a) the time and cost required
 - (i) to prepare the record for disclosure, including severing time, and

- (ii) to retrieve records from another location;
- (b) the cost of copying the record;
- (c) the cost of computer time involved in locating and copying a record or, if necessary, re-programming to create a new record;
- (d) the cost of supervising an applicant who wishes to examine the original record, when applicable;
- (e) the cost of shipping the record or a copy of the record, other than by mail or fax.

(2) An applicant has up to 20 days to indicate if the fee estimate is accepted or to modify the request to change the amount of fees assessed.

Payment of fees

12(1) Processing of a request ceases once a notice of estimate has been forwarded to an applicant and recommences immediately on the receipt of an agreement to pay the fee, and on the receipt of at least 50% of any estimated fee.

(2) The balance of any fee owing is payable at the time the information is delivered to the applicant.

(3) Fees or any part of those fees will be refunded if the amount paid is higher than the actual cost of the service.

Applicant excused from paying fee
