BIOGRAPHICAL/HISTORICAL NOTE

Gillis Long was born in Winnfield, Winn Parish, Louisiana, on May 4, 1923, and attended the public schools of Winnfield and Alexandria, Louisiana. After graduation, he attended Louisiana State University (LSU) in Baton Rouge, where he received a B.A. in 1949. He received his law degree from LSU in 1951. That same year, he was admitted to practice before the State Supreme Court and then before the Supreme Court of the United States in 1954.

During the Second World War, Long served in the Infantry as a private and rose through the ranks to captain, earning the Bronze Star and the Purple Heart. He also served with the Internal Security Detachment at the Nuremberg war trials. Following the war, Long finished his B.A. and law degree and began his legal career, serving as legal counsel to the Senate Select Committee on Small Business from 1951 to 1952 and as chief counsel to the House of Representatives' Special Committee on Campaign Expenditures from 1952 to 1954, and again in 1956.

In 1962, Long was elected as a Democrat to the 88th Congress, serving from January 3, 1963, to January 3, 1965. His bids for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Louisiana in 1963 and 1971 were both unsuccessful, as was his bid for reelection to the House of Representatives in 1964. Long served as assistant director of the Office of Economic Opportunity from 1965 to 1966. He resumed the practice of law from 1970 to 1972, worked as an investment banker, and served as president of the board of commissioners of the Louisiana Deep Draft Harbor and Terminal Authority in 1972. Long was reelected to the House of Representatives for the 93rd Congress and to the six succeeding Congresses, serving from January 3, 1973, until his death in Washington, D.C., on January 20, 1985.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The Gillis W. Long Papers span the years 1807 to 1989, with the bulk of the collection dating from 1951 to 1985. The collection comprises correspondence, printed materials, photographs, various forms of audio-visual media, and memorabilia. It is divided into five series. The Long Family Series consists of materials about Long's famous relatives as well as his immediate family. The Early Years Series comprises items dating back to before his election to Congress. The U. S. House of Representatives Series includes Long's personal and legislative files. The Political Series comprises his campaign files and state and national political records. The Social Series consists of Mardi Gras files and memorabilia. For a more detailed description of the contents of each series, see the Series and Sub-Series Descriptions (p. 6). In addition to the regular Container List, see also the Folder Container List for detailed, folder-level content information.

SERIES AND SUBSERIES DESCRIPTIONS

Series I. Long Family, 1807-1989, undated

Consists mainly of printed material relating to Earl K. Long, Huey P. Long, and Russell B. Long. Also includes articles discussing the Long legacy, an introduction of Gillis Long's immediate family, and the will of James L. Long and the Daughters of the American Revolution credentials. (Items donated by Floyd and George)

Series II. Early Years, 1940-1972

This series spans the years preceding Long's election to the United States House of Representatives in 1962, as well as the period between his defeat in 1964 and his reelection in 1972.

Subseries 1. Business Files, circa 1950-1972

General files include correspondence and printed material relating to business opportunities in several areas, including real estate and oil leases, and also include some campaign references. The files relating to Robert A. Maheu Associates and its successor, Maheu and King Associates, also include files relating to Maheu's employer, Howard Hughes. These files are combined regardless of company and filed alphabetically by project. Files relating to Kohlmeyer & Co., and members of the New York Stock Exchange, reflect Long's service as a special consultant in corporate and financial matters. A few files from Long's Washington, D.C., office relating to his work with Brookhart, Dorsey, and Callahan law offices complete the sub-series. The files are arranged alphabetically by company and then alphabetically by project. The material is included within the subseries exactly as Long had it.

NOTE: client legal files are restricted. The restricted files consist mainly of files from Long's personal business career as a lawyer, specializing in administrative, corporate, and financial law, and as an investment banker. The files cover Long's involvement with several companies as well as his own personal business speculations. Included are files from his own law office, Long and Hamm, filed as Alexandria Office, and containing mainly correspondence and printed material relating to lawsuits, office administration, and campaigns.

Subseries 2. Personal Correspondence, 1950-1972

Consists mainly of correspondence from family, friends, business associates, former House colleagues, and former constituents covering a variety of state and national issues. Includes birthday and Christmas wishes, personal trips and schedules, and the last will and testaments of Gillis and Cathy Long. Also includes material from aspects of Gillis' career outside elected office. Including papers from his time as counsel to the Special Committee on Campaign Expenditures and from his work with the Office of Economic Opportunity and the National Committee on Urban Growth. Materials are filed chronologically by year and then alphabetically within the year.

Subseries 3. Personal Schedule, 1958-1971

Consists of calendars, daily schedules, and itineraries for Gillis and Cathy Long. A majority of the itineraries are from Long's 1971 campaign for the U.S. House of Representatives. Materials are filed chronologically by year and then alphabetically within the year.

Subseries 4. Louisiana State University Papers, 1940-1949

Consists of Long's academic record from the College of Arts and Sciences and a campaign flyer from his campaign for president of the same college. Materials are filed chronologically by year and then alphabetically within the year.

Subseries 5. World War II Papers, 1942-1950

Consists of Long's record of military service, commission records, awarding of the bronze star, honorable discharge, military retirement records, and marriage license. Also contains materials relating to the Nuremberg war trials, including papers, a photograph from the trials, printed items, and a poster listing the verdicts and sentences. Materials are filed chronologically by year and then alphabetically within the year.

Series III. U.S. House of Representatives, 1940-1985, undated

Papers from Long's career as a Representative from Louisiana.

Subseries 1. House Office Files, 1940-1985, undated

This subseries consists of personal office files, administrative assistants' files, legislative assistants' files, legislative files, department and independent agency files, state affairs, Louisiana grants and projects, and press files.

A. Personal Office Files, 1954-1985, undated consists of the following types of files (below).

Administrative Files -consists of files relating to the operation of Long's congressional office. Includes staff memos, materials relating to the operation of the House of Representatives, committee files, research files, and files of staff assistant David Roach. Materials are filed chronologically by year then alphabetically within the year. David Roach's materials were re-housed in their original order.

Correspondence -consists of correspondence to and from constituents, colleagues, family, and friends. Includes birthday and Christmas wishes, condolences, congratulations, joint letters, legislative correspondence, personal correspondence, and thank you notes. Materials are filed chronologically by year and then alphabetically within the year.

House Leadership Files- consists of information from the Democratic Study Group such as fact sheets, legislative reports, special reports, and staff bulletins; caucus files; and information from the Speaker of the House and the House Majority Whip. Arranged alphabetically by subject, chronologically within subject.

Invitations Accepted -consists of invitations to official and non-official functions accepted by Rep. Long. Materials are filed chronologically by year.

Research Files -background files on various topics of interest to Rep. Long. They include speeches and printed material. Materials are filed alphabetically by subject. An alphabetical list of all subjects is contained in the first box.

Schedules and Calendars -includes calendars; adjournment, daily, and long-range schedules; itineraries; records of appointments and guest books for the office; and trip files. All materials are in chronological order and then alphabetical order within the year.

Telephone Logs -records of calls received by Rep. Long's office. They include the caller's name, date, time, and reason for the call. Materials are filed chronologically.

V. I. P. Correspondence -includes letters and memos from Carl Albert; Les Aspin; James A. Baker, III; George Bush; Jimmy Carter; Geraldine A. Ferraro; Thomas S. Foley; Richard A. Gephardt; Barry M. Goldwater, Jr.; Albert Gore, Jr.; Hubert H. Humphrey; Blanche Long; John J. McKeithen; Walter F. Mondale; Thomas P. O'Neill, Jr.; Donald T. Regan; Ronald Reagan; Buddy Roemer; Sargent Shriver; and Paul Simon. Items are arranged alphabetically and then chronologically. The original items are stored in the vault, but photocopies are available within the folders.

B. Administrative Assistants' Files

includes the files of three members of Rep. Long's staff. They are Carson Killen, Tom Ledet, Willie Meaux, and Patti Tyson. Very little of Killen's files are included due to a conflict of political interests after Rep. Gillis Long died.

Materials include correspondence, legislation, research files, and printed material. The majority of Tyson's files relate to sunset legislation, which was intended to improve Congressional review of spending, regulatory, and revenue laws. Materials are filed chronologically and then alphabetically by topic.

C. Legislative Assistants' Files, 1973-1984

These files include research files; subject files; speech drafts; press releases; bills and amendments; floor statements; correspondence to and from GWL; correspondence with constituents, VIPs, and agencies; co-sponsorship memos, dear colleague and joint letters; and some committee files. Filed chronologically by year, then alphabetically by subject.

D. Legislative Files, 1963-1975

Consist of the following types of files (below).

Bills Sponsored and Co-sponsored – includes bills sponsored or co-sponsored by Representative Long. Includes House Resolutions, House-Joint Resolutions, House Congressional Resolutions, and Legislative Profiles. Files contain copies of bills and amendments, pages from the Congressional Record, background information, correspondence, information from lobbyists, articles and press releases, co-sponsorship memos, and staff memos. Separated by type of bill, then filed chronologically by year and bill number.

General Legislation Files -correspondence from constituents expressing their opinions about various bills and amendments; correspondence from colleagues asking Long for support or thanking him for support of legislation; letters and telegrams from lobbyists, agencies, organizations, and businesses; petitions from individuals and groups; copies of legislation; and notes, memos, printed material, and background information regarding legislation. Only the 1973-early 1974 files and a few from 1977-1981 were found here. The remaining years appear to have been dispersed into other files, such as legislative assistants, department, and independent agencies, etc. Files are arranged chronologically by year and then alphabetically within years.

Legislative Initiatives -contains correspondence, background material and research, memos, notes from meetings/strategy sessions, speeches and statements of Representative Long, testimony before committees, articles, newsletters, a printed list of bills sponsored and co-sponsored, material from hearings, and copies of legislation and the Congressional Record. Filed alphabetically by topic and kept in original order in folders. Alphabetical list available.

Special Issues -contains articles, background material and research, correspondence, notes and memos, copies of legislation and the Congressional Record, statements of Representative Long, fact sheets, issue briefs, and material from hearings. Filed alphabetically by subject and chronologically within the folders. An alphabetical list of issues is available.

Voting Records -indicates how GWL voted. Includes votes from 1963-1982, the 88th-97th Congresses. Arranged chronologically.

E. Department and Independent Agency Files, 1971-1983

Consists of requests from Louisiana constituents for GWL's assistance in their interactions with federal departments and agencies. Files include correspondence, clippings, and printed materials. Filed chronologically by year, alphabetically within year by department or agency, then alphabetically by issue. Papers are filed chronologically within the specific folders.

F. State Affairs, 1963-1984, undated

Includes correspondence on behalf of constituents; with organizations in Louisiana regarding issues, invitations, and projects; constituents' correspondence concerning problems with state agencies and companies; requests from constituents; joint letters of the Louisiana delegation; and printed material. Information is filed chronologically by year, alphabetically within the year, and chronologically within the specific folders.

G. Louisiana Grants and Projects, 1972-1984, undated

Consist of specific files and special project files. Specific files comprise correspondence, clippings, and printed materials related to individual grants or projects. Material is filed alphabetically by project, then chronologically. Special Projects files include mass mailings to specific groups regarding issues of special interest to that group. Files include correspondence, clippings, and printed material.

H. Press Files, 1940-1985, undated

Contain transcripts of interviews, magazine and newspaper clippings, newsletters, press releases, speeches, statements, television scripts, and testimonies. Files are arranged alphabetically and chronologically. Also included among these files are biographical material, audio and video media, and photographs/slides.

The collection contains audio tapes and reel-to-reels; VHS, Beta, ¾, and 2" video tapes; 16mm and 2" film. Photographs and slides in the collection are from GWL's college days and Congressional career. Also included are photographs and slides of family members, constituents, office staff, and events. The categories include business trip, committee meetings, constituents, elections, events, foreign trips, groups, personal photographs, portraits, staff, Superport, travel, and VIPs. Files are arranged alphabetically and chronologically. NOTE: The audio and video media are restricted because they are currently unprocessed.

Subseries 2. House Committee Files, 1973-1985, undated

Files consist of correspondence, reports of hearings, statements by Congress members and others, copies of legislation considered by each committee, and press releases. Items are related to the Joint Economic Committee and the Committee on Rules. Contains information from the subcommittees and commissions of the Committee on Rules, which include the Commission on Administrative Review, the Subcommittee on the Rules and Organization of the House, and the Subcommittee on the Legislative Process. Other topics are Rules Committee issues handled by Long, issues considered by the Rules Committee, legislation of special interest, and original jurisdiction. Superport photographs can be found with press files in Box 230 of the collection. Items are filed alphabetically by committee, then by Congress, and in chronological order.

Series IV. Political, 1951-1985, undated

Subseries 1. Congressional Campaign Files, 1962-1984
