Contributions are not deductible for federal income tax purposes. The maximum contribution to a State Senate candidate committee is $5,000 per election. Contributions may come from individual U.S. citizens or green card holders, New York registered political action committees, LLCs/PLLCs, and unincorporated unions or associations. For corporations, each affiliated or subsidiary corporation, if a separate legal entity, has its own limit. Corporations and LLCs may contribute no more than $5,000 in the aggregate to all New York candidates and committees during a calendar year. LLC contributors must identify the LLC's members and percentage of ownership interests. Partnerships that make an aggregate contribution exceeding $2,500 will be required to identify each partner who is responsible for the contribution and the amount to be allocated to the partner(s). Attributions will count towards the owner/partner individual contribution limit.
