HEY GIRLS HOME PACK SERVICE: PERIOD DIGNITY DELIVERED

HOW IT WORKS

Each home pack offer is unique, but generally it follows the below model:

1 SET YOUR SPEND

You set the budget and we'll calculate how many packs and how many people you can support. This gives you clarity, transparency, and supports impact reporting.

2 PICK YOUR PRODUCTS

We offer ready made bundles with disposable and reusable options so you can pick what suits your people or project focus most efficiently.

3 DELIVERED DIRECT TO THEIR DOOR

Hey Girls creates and manages a private web page where your recipients can sign up and order their home packs for free. We take care of all the logistics, from packing to delivery.

over 171,460 home packs delivered since the service started in 2020.

over 70 partners across the UK delivering home packs to their community.

WHO IS IT FOR?

Hey Girls Home Packs are designed for councils, public sector teams and businesses that want to deliver period dignity straight to people's doors.

We're proud to work with leading councils across the UK who trust us to deliver at scale, with recipients commenting: "Absolutely brilliant, in fact life changing...It has made my period seem less hassle, and that is great."

Working within the assigned budget, each home pack includes essential period products that recipients order, for free, via a private online webpage. We then deliver discreetly and directly to their homes.
