

GORDON JCC

Code of Conduct

The Gordon Jewish Community Center is a home away from home for the Nashville and Middle Tennessee Jewish community and our Gordon JCC members. Like any home, there are some “house rules” on the grounds and in the building to create a safe, healthy, and enjoyable environment for all members, guests, and staff.

We welcome you as part of our “home” and trust in your commitment to respect the rights and dignities of others by:

- Resolving conflicts in a respectful, honest and caring manner, never resorting to physical contact or threatening gestures.
- Speaking in respectful tones and refraining from vulgar, derogatory and suggestive language.
- Respecting the property of others; never engaging in theft or destruction.
- Creating a safe environment by refraining from using or possessing illegal drugs or any tobacco products, or abusing prescription drugs or alcohol.

The Gordon JCC reserves the right to take any action it deems appropriate in response to the violation of the above code of conduct. Such actions may include, but are not limited to, removal of violators from the premises and suspension or revocation of membership or certain membership privileges.
